

---

DIPLOMA

This is to confirm that

Anthony Kevins

has completed the course

Teacher training programme in English (adjunktpædagogikum)

for assistant professors and postdocs, Aarhus University 2016-2017.

Extent of programme: The first module corresponds to 2 ECTS credits (60 working hours) and consists of a three-day residential course and 30+ hours of preparation. The second, third, and fourth modules together correspond to 3 ECTS (90 working hours).

Format: The programme consists of literature studies, presentations, practical training exercises, exchange of experience, and discussions as well as the development of a teaching portfolio.

Contents: The first module comprises theories of learning; learning objectives; planning of programmes in a theoretical perspective; student characteristics and study strategies; participants' own teaching plans and teaching practice; didactic choices and teaching strategies for lectures, small group teaching and supervision; good practice principles for teaching diverse student audiences as well as assessment and exams in a Danish context. The subsequent modules comprise a teaching experiment with (peer) feedback; educational IT and blended learning; and the development of participants' own teaching portfolios.

Teachers: Stacey Cozart (Centre for Teaching Development and Digital Media, Arts); Karen M. Lauridsen, Ole Lauridsen (course coordinator), Anne-Mette Alsholm, Tobias Alsted Nielsen, Mathias Elmoose Andersen, (Centre for Teaching and Learning, Business and Social Sciences); Annika Büchert Lindberg, Mikkel Godsk, Ole Eggers Bjælde, Anna Hollyoak Helleberg, Rikke Frøhlich Hougaard og Jesper Strøm Søhof (Centre for Science Education, Science and Technology).

Aarhus, January 12, 2017

Ole Lauridsen